

Trevor & Mary

For Trevor Kade Theunissen, the call came during a LSU football game. “You have got to come out,” said Camille Coniglio, who wanted to set him up with their mutual friend, Mary McCutchen Poltevent. Mary had just moved back home to New Orleans after living in New York for five years.

Camille “had been trying to set us up for a while,” said Trevor, who was persuaded to leave the LSU game at halftime and meet them at Bacchanal.

Camille had been bugging Mary about Trevor, too, so she agreed to go out for one drink. “It was awkward for both of us because we knew we were being set up,” Mary said. But that one drink turned into a Saturday evening out that lasted until 4 a.m.

Trevor then wasted no time, asking Mary to a Saints game on Sunday at noon. “I wondered...if it was too soon to ask her out,” he said.

“I would have thought about it if it was anything other than a Saints game,” Mary said. “I really wanted to go” to that game. (The Saints beat the Falcons, 31-27.)

Just a little over two years later, Trevor and Mary got engaged on Dec. 5, 2014, at Jackson Square Park in New York City, chosen for its connections to New Orleans — it presumably is named after Andrew Jackson — and the neighborhood where Mary once lived. Family members already were gathered in the city to celebrate Mary’s 30th birthday.

Jumping into the wedding planning, she quickly called the Academy of the Sacred Heart — which she attended for 13 years — to reserve the chapel. The couple then went through the football schedules for LSU and the University of Georgia to find a date that wouldn't conflict.

A native of Jennings, Trevor is southeast public policy manager for Uber. He earned his law degree from LSU and a business economics and public policy degree from George Washington University. Mary graduated cum laude from the University of Georgia with a degree in art history and also earned an associate's degree in interior design from Parsons School for Design. She's principal in Jefferson and Jane Interiors + Styling.

As for the bridal details, Mary had a definite vision. She designed her dress and lent her creative touch to the invitations, wedding crest, flowers and food.

During the engagement, the duo would give each other gifts once a month. The sweet keepsakes were a reminder that love has its own timetable — and sometimes a Saints game can be fortuitous.
